

Hebrew Union Agricultural Society.

In reporting Mr. M. Loth's collections last week the types made us credit the various donors with having given cents instead of dollars. We, therefore, append a correct list of the amounts of the subscriptions:

M. Guggenheim, Esq., New York, life membership	$100 00
Henry Newman, Esq., New York, life membership	100 00
Jacob H. Schiff, Esq., New York, life membership.....	100 00
Jesse Seligman, Esq., New York, life membership..	100 00
Moses Dropsie, Esq., Philadelphia, life membership.....	100 00
Simon Muhr, Esq., Philadelphia, life membership.....	100 00
Herman Bernheim Sons & Co., New York, donation.....	50 00
S. B. Fleisher, Esq., Philadelphia, donation	50 00
Hirsch & Bros., Philadelphia, do- nation.	50 00
Philip Lewin, Esq., Philadelphia, donation	25 00
N. Littauer, Esq., New York, do- nation	25 00
S. W. Glazier, Esq., San Francisco, donation	25 00
Anonymous, Mount Vernon, Ia., donation	25 00
Loeb Bros., Esq., Philadelphia, do- nation.....	20 00
Isaac Saller, Esq., Philadelphia (second donation).....	10 00
Scheur Bros., Esqrs., New York, donation	10 00
I. B. Pingo, Esq., New York, do- nation.....	5 00
Moses May, Esq., Grand Rapids, donation.....	2 50

We have also received at this office, since our last report, and handed to the Secretary, the following donations:

Mrs. M. L. Gutman, Rochester, N. Y.....	$10 00
Collections at Bradford, Pa., by Philip Nussbaum, Esq. (addi- tional).....	30 00

Mr. Jos. Abraham, the Secretary of the society, says that Mr. Nussbaum has done more in the way of getting subscribers than any other man. Dutch Flat, Cal., has heard of the society, and sends subscriptions. We will publish a very interesting letter from Mr. Nussbaum in our next issue, in which he gives very interesting details concerning the Cotopaxi Colony, which he recently visited.